| Paragraphs 1.5 Document Conventions: The descriptive paragraphs and rationale paragraphs provided with the SLS document and addressed in this paragraph provide insight into the SLS development. While there is a need to document the evolution of the CLCS design requirements, the CLCS System Level Specification is not the place to do it. | | | | | |

Response Attachment 200-085

The RID Management Team disagrees that the stated concern is a problem. It is believed the descriptive and rationale paragraphs assist the reader in understanding what the requirements are and why they are written in the manner they are.
